New Business (Tour):

Water treatment superintendent Mike Smith and Water treatment operator Drew Meenach, along with Jim Stanley and Brian Frost, provided a detailed tour of the Water Treatment facility, explaining their duties and responsibilities. They explained that the facility produces an average of 1.3 to 1.8 million gallons of water per day, and there are 4 production wells that pull water from the Teays Water Aquifer. They noted that Chlorine is added for disinfection and oxidation, and Fluoride is added for dental health. Smith stated that Circleville has hard water but it is clean and safe for consumption. They also explained the Pilot program that is currently underway which is essential for testing and validating new water technology, highlighting that the program will wrap up right before Christmas. They answered all questions from Council members and Elected Officials.

The Water Treatment Plant tour concluded at 6:10 p.m.

Minutes prepared by Sarah Kolesar, Assistant Clerk.
